

■ Study in the USA – Country Guide

Introduction

The United States is one of the most popular study destinations in the world. With thousands of top-ranked universities, a wide variety of academic programs, and diverse cultural experiences, studying in the USA opens doors to global opportunities.

Quick Highlights:

- Home to world-renowned universities like Harvard, MIT, and Stanford.
- 1,000,000+ international students.
- Strong focus on research, innovation, and career opportunities.

Education System in the USA

The American education system offers flexibility and a wide range of programs:

- Associate Degree (2 years): Usually offered at community colleges.
- Bachelor's Degree (4 years): Undergraduate programs.
- Master's Degree (1–2 years): Graduate programs with research or coursework focus.
- PhD / Doctoral Programs (3–6 years): Research-intensive programs.

Popular Programs

- Computer Science & Information Technology
- Business Administration & Management
- Engineering (Mechanical, Civil, Electrical, Software)
- Medicine & Healthcare
- Social Sciences & Humanities

Visa Information

- Visa Type: F1 Student Visa.
- Requirements: I-20 form, SEVIS fee, DS-160 application, visa interview.
- Processing Time: Around 2–4 weeks (varies by embassy).

Cost of Study & Living

- Tuition Fees: USD 10,000 – 55,000 per year (depends on institution & program).
- Living Costs: USD 1,000 – 2,500 per month (housing, food, transport, health insurance).

■ Tip: Living in smaller cities or studying at community colleges can reduce costs.

Scholarships & Financial Aid

- Fulbright Program (Government-funded scholarships)
- University Scholarships (merit or need-based)
- Private Scholarships & Grants (NGOs, foundations)

Student Life & Culture

- Multicultural environment with students from all over the world
- Vibrant campus life (clubs, sports, internships)
- Strong networking opportunities with professionals & alumni

Application Process (Step by Step)

1. Choose your preferred universities & programs.
2. Prepare documents (academic transcripts, test scores, recommendation letters).
3. Submit applications & pay fees.
4. Receive admission letter.
5. Apply for F1 Visa.
6. Attend visa interview.
7. Book flight & arrange accommodation.
8. Fly to the USA and begin your studies!

Why Choose Global Wings Education?

- Free initial consultation.
- University & program selection guidance.
- Full application support.
- Visa assistance & interview preparation.
- Scholarship guidance.
- Pre-departure & post-arrival support.

Contact Information

- Address: Jl. Cibubur Mansion, Blok D6 No 15, Cileungsi, Bogor. 16820
- Phone: +62 812 8971 1289 (Human Counselor)
- Email: info@globalwings.education
- WhatsApp: +62 812 8971 1289